PROCEEDINGS FOR NOVEMBER 25, 2019

(The following took place in open court with the defendant present.)

THE COURT: The Court calls for arraignment, United States of America versus Davin Seth Waters, 2:19-CR-93-Z-BR (1).

MS. BELL: The United States is ready, Your Honor.

MR. ROPER: Dean Roper for the Defendant, Your Honor. We're ready to proceed.

THE COURT: Would you please raise your right hand, sir.

(The defendant was sworn by the Court.)

THE COURT: All right. Are you Davin Seth Waters?

THE DEFENDANT: Yes, ma'am.

THE COURT: Okay. Do you intend to plead guilty to Count One of an indictment that charges you with Transportation of Minors with Intent to Engage in Criminal Sexual Activity?

THE DEFENDANT: I do.

THE COURT: Okay. For purposes of the record, that statute can be found at 18, United States Code, Section 2423(a).

Mr. Waters, before I can recommend that our District Judge accepts the plea of guilty that you intend to enter this morning, I'm going to have to ask you a lot of

1 questions, and there's two reasons for that. First, I have
2 to make certain that you understand all of the rights that
3 you will be giving up by pleading guilty; second, I have to
4 make certain that there are facts that will support the plea
5 of guilty.

6 Do you understand the reasons that there will be so
7 many questions?

8 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, ma'am.

9 THE COURT: If I ask a question that you do not 10 understand, will you feel comfortable telling me that I'm 11 being unclear?

12 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, ma'am.

13 THE COURT: Okay. Do you understand that at any 14 point during the hearing today you have the ability to 15 consult privately with your attorney?

16 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, ma'am.

17 THE COURT: Okay. If you answer my questions then
18 without telling me that I'm being unclear or without asking
19 to talk to your attorney, can I assume that you have 20 understood the question you're answering?

21 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, ma'am.

22 THE COURT: Do you understand that you are under 23 oath, and if you answer any of these questions falsely, the 24 Government could prosecute you for perjury or for making a
25 false statement?

1           THE DEFENDANT: I understand.

2           THE COURT: I know I have said it, but would you
3 please state your full name for our record, please, sir.

4           THE DEFENDANT: Davin Seth Waters.

5           THE COURT: How old are you?

6           THE DEFENDANT: I'm twenty-five, ma'am.

7           THE COURT: How far did you go in school, sir?

8           THE DEFENDANT: I went into -- graduated high
9 school and have some college classes also.

10          THE COURT: Okay. About how many hours of college
11 classes would you estimate?

12          THE DEFENDANT: From 8 to 20, I believe.

13          THE COURT: Okay. Have you been treated recently
14 for any kind of mental illness?

15          THE DEFENDANT: No, ma'am.

16          THE COURT: Have you been treated recently for an
17 addiction to narcotic drugs of my kind?

18          THE DEFENDANT: No, ma'am.

19          THE COURT: Are you currently under the influence
20 of any drug, medication, or alcoholic beverage of any kind?

21          THE DEFENDANT: No, ma'am.

22          THE COURT: Before we go any further in the case, I
23 want to go over the consent form that you would have signed
24 before court.

25               It explains that you have the right to have our

1 District Judge hear your plea of guilty, or you can choose to
2 have a United States Magistrate Judge like myself take your
3 guilty plea and then make a recommendation to the District
4 Judge, who is our presiding judge, that he either accepts or 5 rejects that plea.

6 Did you have a chance to go over this consent form
7 briefly with your attorney before the hearing today?

8 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, ma'am.

9 THE COURT: If you had any questions about this 10 consent process, did you have an opportunity to get those 11 questions answered?

12 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, ma'am.

13 THE COURT: And is that your signature down here in 14 the bottom corner?

15 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, ma'am.

16 THE COURT: Would you like to proceed forward today
17 with having your guilty plea taken in front of the United 18 States Magistrate Judge?

19 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, ma'am.

20 THE COURT: Okay. I find that the consent in the 21 case has been knowingly and voluntarily given, and we'll
22 proceed forward.

23 Mr. Waters, have you been provided with a copy of 24 the Indictment to which you intend to plead guilty?

25 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, ma'am.

1           THE COURT: Before the hearing today, did you
2 either read it yourself or have it read to you?

3           THE DEFENDANT: Yes, ma'am.

4           THE COURT: Have you fully discussed the charges in 5 that Indictment as well as your entire case with your 6 attorney?

7           THE DEFENDANT: I have.

8           THE COURT: We can have the Government's attorney
9 read the Indictment out loud, or you can give up or waive
10 that reading. Which would you like?

11           THE DEFENDANT: I'd prefer to waive it, ma'am.

12           THE COURT: That's fine. The one thing we do still 13 have to do though is inform you of what the essential
14 elements are of that offense. In a moment, I'll have the 15 Assistant U.S. Attorney read that aloud.

16           Those are the factual matters that the Government
17 would have to prove at any trial using competent evidence and 18 beyond a reasonable doubt before you could be found guilty.

19           MS. BELL: "Count One. Transportation of Minors
20 with Intent to Engage in Criminal Sexual Activity.

21           "First, that the defendant knowingly transported
22 MV1 or MV2 in interstate commerce; second, that at the time
23 of the transportation, MV1 or MV2 was less than 18 years old;
24 and, third, that at the time of the transportation, the 25 defendant intended that MV1 or MV2 would engage in unlawful

1 sexual activity."

2           THE COURT: Although you waived the reading of the 3 Indictment, you did hear the essential elements of that
4 offense being read to you.

5           Do you understand the nature of this charge to 6 which you intend to plead guilty?

7           THE DEFENDANT: Yes, ma'am.

8           THE COURT: Counsel, are you satisfied that your
9 client does understand the nature of this charge?

10          MR. ROPER: Yes, Your Honor.

11          THE COURT: I find that Mr. Waters does understand
12 the nature of the charge to which he intends to plead guilty
13 today.

14          Sir, are you fully satisfied with your attorney and 15 the representation and advice that has been given to you in 16 the case?

17          THE DEFENDANT: I am, ma'am.

18          THE COURT: The Court has your Plea Agreement and 19 has reviewed it. You have the right to have the document
20 read out loud to you in court this morning, or you can give 21 up that right. Which would you like to do?

22          THE DEFENDANT: I'd like to waive it, ma'am.

23          THE COURT: Counsel, would you join in that waiver?

24          MR. ROPER: I do, Your Honor.

25          THE COURT: Before we started your hearing today,

1     sir, did you have an opportunity both to read and discuss the
2     Plea Agreement with your attorney?

3             THE DEFENDANT: I did, ma'am.

4             THE COURT: Okay. Do you understand all of the 5     terms that are in your Plea Agreement?

6             THE DEFENDANT: I do, ma'am.

7             THE COURT: Okay. Counsel, are you satisfied that 8     Mr. Waters understands the terms of his agreement with the 9     Government?

10            MR. ROPER: Yes, Your Honor.

11            THE COURT: Okay. Sir, do you have any changes or 12    corrections to make to the agreement?

13            THE DEFENDANT: No, ma'am.

14            THE COURT: Counsel, would you have any?

15            MR. ROPER: No, ma'am.

16            THE COURT: As I look at the back page of the 17    agreement, Mr. Waters, it appears that you have signed it.
18    Is that your signature both at the top and the bottom of this
19    last page?

20            THE DEFENDANT: Yes, ma'am.

21            THE COURT: Counsel, is that yours underneath?

22            MR. ROPER: Yes, Your Honor.

23            THE COURT: Mr. Waters, are you pleading guilty
24    today based on any promises by anyone other than those that 25    are written down in this agreement?

1           THE DEFENDANT: No, ma'am.

2           THE COURT: Has anyone threatened you or attempted
3 to force you to plead guilty in the case today?

4           THE DEFENDANT: No, ma'am.

5           THE COURT: Are you pleading guilty voluntarily and 6 of your own free will because you are guilty?

7           THE DEFENDANT: Yes, ma'am.

8           THE COURT: Do you understand that by pleading
9 guilty to a felony offense, if our District Judge accepts
10 that plea, you will be adjudged guilty, and then that 11 judgment can deprive you of valuable civil rights, such as 12 the right to vote, the right to serve on a jury, the right to 13 hold public office, and the right to possess any kind of a
14 firearm?

15           THE DEFENDANT: I understand.

16           THE COURT: Do you understand that under the 17 Constitution and laws of our country you have the right to 18 plead not guilty and are entitled to a trial by a jury on the 19 charge in the Indictment?

20           THE DEFENDANT: I understand.

21           THE COURT: Do you understand that, at trial and 22 every other part of your case, you're entitled to have the 23 assistance of an attorney?

24           THE DEFENDANT: I understand.

25           THE COURT: Do you understand that at trial you

1 would be presumed to be innocent, and that the Government
2 would have to prove your guilt with competent evidence and
3 beyond a reasonable doubt before you could be found guilty,
4 and that you don't have to prove your innocence?

5 THE DEFENDANT: I understand, ma'am.

6 THE COURT: Do you understand that during trial the
7 Government's witnesses would have to come to the courthouse
8 and testify in front of you, so that you could see and hear
9 what they were saying, and then have your attorney ask them
10 questions on cross-examination?

11 THE DEFENDANT: I understand.

12 THE COURT: Do you also understand that you would
13 have the right to testify and present evidence on your own
14 behalf if you wanted to do so voluntarily, but that you
15 couldn't be forced to testify against yourself?

16 THE DEFENDANT: I understand.

17 THE COURT: Do you further understand that if you
18 decided not to testify or present any evidence, those facts
19 could not be used against you?

20 THE DEFENDANT: I understand.

21 THE COURT: Are you aware that your lawyer could
22 issue legal documents that we call subpoenas that would force
23 favorable witnesses to come into the courthouse and testify
24 on your behalf?

25 THE DEFENDANT: I am aware.

1           THE COURT: Do you understand that if you do plead
2 guilty today, and the District Judge accepts that plea, you
3 will be giving up your right to a jury trial as well as all
4 of these other rights I just described?

5           THE DEFENDANT: I understand.

6           THE COURT: Do you further understand that you will
7 be giving up your right not to testify against yourself,
8 because I will ask you questions to establish that you are 9 guilty, and you will have to admit your guilt?

10          THE DEFENDANT: I understand.

11          THE COURT: I need to inform you of what the 12 potential penalties and consequences are of a conviction for 13 this offense to which you intend to plead guilty and make 14 sure you understand each of these.

15               Do you understand that the maximum period of 16 imprisonment is life and the minimum period of imprisonment
17 is ten years?

18          THE DEFENDANT: Yes, ma'am.

19          THE COURT: Do you understand that you might be 20 assessed a fine, the largest of $250,000, or double the gross
21 money gain derived by you from the offense or double the 22 gross money loss caused by the offense to any person?

23          THE DEFENDANT: I understand.

24          THE COURT: Do you understand you will be ordered
25 to make full restitution in the form of money, or services in

1     lieu of money, to any victim of the offense because
2     restitution is mandatory by statute?

3             THE DEFENDANT: I understand.

4             THE COURT: Are you aware you will be required to 5     pay a mandatory special assessment of $100?

6             THE DEFENDANT: I understand.

7             THE COURT: Do you also understand that, unless the 8     Court finds you are indigent, you will have to pay an 9     additional assessment of 500,000 -- excuse me, $5,000 in 10    accordance with 18, United States Code, Section 3014?

11            THE DEFENDANT: I understand.

12            THE COURT: Are you aware that you may be ordered
13    to forfeit certain property to the United States?

14            THE DEFENDANT: I am.

15            THE COURT: Are you also aware you may be ordered
16    to pay the costs of incarceration and supervision?

17            THE DEFENDANT: I'm aware.

18            THE COURT: Finally, do you understand that you
19    must serve a mandatory period of supervised release of no
20    less than five years and no more than life?

21            THE DEFENDANT: Yes, ma'am.

22            THE COURT: Okay. With respect to supervised
23    release, do you understand that that is a period of time that 24    would follow your release from any term of imprisonment and 25    is subject to such terms and conditions as the Court can

1 impose under the law, and, further, that if you were to
2 violate any of those terms and conditions while on release,
3 you could be sent back to prison for the entire term of your
4 supervised release period without receiving credit for any
5 time you had already been out of prison and under supervised
6 release?

7 THE DEFENDANT: I'm aware.

8 THE COURT: Has anyone made any prediction or 9 promise to you as to what your sentence actually will be?

10 THE DEFENDANT: No, ma'am.

11 THE COURT: Do you understand that it is our
12 District Judge, and he alone, that will decide your sentence?

13 THE DEFENDANT: I understand.

14 THE COURT: All right. Do you understand that, in 15 deciding what your sentence will be, the District Judge is 16 required to consider the United States Sentencing Guidelines,
17 meaning he has to take those into account as well as the 18 punishment range that is in the guidelines, but that neither
19 of those things are binding on him?

20 THE DEFENDANT: I understand.

21 THE COURT: Do you understand the law requires our
22 District Judge to impose a sentence that does several things:
23 Reflect the seriousness of your offense, promote respect for 24 the law, provide just punishment, afford adequate deterrence,
25 protect the public, and effectively provide you with any

1 needed educational or vocational training, medical care, or
2 other correctional treatment?

3 THE DEFENDANT: I understand.

4 THE COURT: Have you and your attorney talked about
5 how the sentencing guidelines might possibly apply in your
6 case?

7 THE DEFENDANT: We have.

8 THE COURT: Do you understand that those guidelines
9 provide the District Judge take into account various factors,
10 such as the actual conduct in which you engaged, to consider
11 any victims of your offense, the role that you played, and 12 then whether you have accepted responsibility for your 13 relevant conduct or have attempted to obstruct justice?

14 THE DEFENDANT: I understand.

15 THE COURT: Do you understand that your criminal
16 history is an important factor under the guidelines?

17 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, ma'am.

18 THE COURT: When you discussed the guidelines with 19 your attorney, did he offer you an opinion or estimate as to 20 how they might apply in your case so that you could determine
21 if you wanted to plead guilty or not?

22 (Attorney/client sotto-voce conference.)

23 MR. ROPER: Could you repeat that for him, please.

24 THE COURT: Yes. When you and Mr. Roper were 25 discussing the United States Sentencing Guidelines and how

1 they might potentially apply in your case, did he provide you
2 with some kind of estimate or opinion as to how the
3 guidelines could possibly work in your situation, and then
4 did that opinion or estimate assist you in deciding whether
5 or not you wanted to plead guilty or go to trial?

6 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, ma'am.

7 THE COURT: Okay. Do you understand that, when
8 your attorney gave you that opinion or estimate, even though
9 he is someone who has a lot of expertise and experience in 10 criminal law, that he still can't promise or guarantee you
11 that his opinion is correct, and, in fact, what our District
12 Judge determines as your sentence could be different than the 13 opinion or estimate your attorney gave you?

14 THE DEFENDANT: I understand.

15 THE COURT: Do you understand that neither our
16 District Judge nor your attorney can determine the guideline
17 range in your case until after a probation officer completes
18 a Presentence Report, and then you and the Government have a
19 chance to read that report and object to the facts in the 20 report and to the guideline range in the report?

21 THE DEFENDANT: I understand.

22 THE COURT: Do you understand that no one,
23 including your lawyer, can predict in advance what your 24 sentence will be?

25 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, ma'am, I understand.

1           THE COURT: Do you understand that, after the
2 guideline range in your case has been determined, the 3 District Judge has the authority to impose a sentence that is
4 more severe than what is called for under the guidelines?

5           THE DEFENDANT: Yes, ma'am.

6           THE COURT: Do you understand that, pursuant to the 7 terms of your Plea Agreement, you have given up your right to
8 appeal except in some limited circumstances that were set out
9 in the case?

10          THE DEFENDANT: I understand.

11          THE COURT: Or I should say set out in the 12 agreement, excuse me.

13          THE DEFENDANT: I understand.

14          THE COURT: Do you understand that parole for the 15 offense to which you intend to plead guilty has been 16 abolished, so that if you are sentenced to prison, you will
17 not be released on parole?

18          THE DEFENDANT: I understand.

19          THE COURT: Finally, do you understand that, if the 20 sentence the District Judge imposes is more severe than what 21 you have expected, you will still be bound by this plea of 22 guilty today, and you will have no right to withdraw it?

23          THE DEFENDANT: I understand.

24          THE COURT: Having been informed of your rights and 25 the possible consequences of pleading guilty, how do you

1 plead to Count One of the Indictment; guilty or not guilty?

2 THE DEFENDANT: Guilty.

3 THE COURT: Before I can recommend that our
4 District Judge accept that plea of guilty that you have
5 entered, I will have to ask you the second set of questions
6 that I mentioned at the beginning to make certain that there
7 are facts that will support that plea of guilty.

8 MS. BELL: I apologize for interrupting the Court.
9 I'm standing in for Mr. Taylor on this case.

10 I noticed that the filed copy of the Factual Resumé
11 only has four pages, but the original has five. I just want
12 to make sure that he got that corrected with the Court, and,
13 if not, I do have an original that we could ask to 14 substitute, but Page 3 is missing from the Factual Resumé
15 that was filed, Your Honor.

16 MR. ROPER: We have -- we were provided a complete
17 set of the Factual Resumé, Your Honor, and we would waive the 18 reading of the Factual Resumé.

19 MS. BELL: Does the Court's file-stamped copy
20 reflect all five pages, or is Page 3 missing in that copy?

21 THE COURT: I'm not logged on to ECF. Mr. Kordes
22 may be able to do that. The copy that we printed from ECF
23 though is missing Page 3.

24 MS. BELL: I suspect it has not been corrected,
25 because my file hasn't.

1           Would the Court accept the full Factual Resumé and
2           substitute it for the one that's in ECF?

3           THE COURT: Yes. We can do that if there are no
4           objections.

5           MR. ROPER: We have no objections, Your Honor.

6           MS. BELL: Thank you, Your Honor. Do you want the 7           copy now?

8           THE COURT: You can go ahead and just give that to 9           Mr. Kordes, and he will take care of replacing the image that 10          is on our electronic case system with the one that has all of 11          the pages --

12          MS. BELL: Thank you, Your Honor.

13          THE COURT: -- on it.

14          Mr. Waters, your counsel mentioned that you would
15          waive the reading of the Factual Resumé. Is that correct,
16          sir?

17          THE DEFENDANT: Yes, ma'am.

18          THE COURT: Okay. Before the proceeding this 19          morning, did you either read the entire five pages of the 20          Factual Resumé, or have it read to you?

21          THE DEFENDANT: I did, ma'am.

22          THE COURT: Okay. Do you understand everything
23          that is in the Factual Resumé?

24          THE DEFENDANT: Yes, ma'am.

25          THE COURT: Do you have any changes or corrections

1 to make?

2 THE DEFENDANT: No, ma'am.

3 THE COURT: Counsel, would you have any changes or 4 corrections to make other than the one we just discussed in
5 terms of making the electronic record complete?

6 MR. ROPER: No, Your Honor.

7 THE COURT: As I look at the last page of this, it
8 appears that you did sign that. Is that your signature, Mr.
9 Waters?

10 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, ma'am.

11 THE COURT: Counsel, is that yours underneath?

12 MR. ROPER: Yes, Your Honor.

13 THE COURT: Mr. Waters, do you admit on your oath
14 in court today that this Factual Resumé is true and correct
15 in every respect?

16 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, ma'am.

17 THE COURT: Do you also admit on your oath in court
18 this morning that you committed the essential elements of the 19 offense that is charged in Count One of the Indictment?

20 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, ma'am.

21 THE COURT: Being satisfied with the responses that 22 have been given during the hearing this morning, I make the 23 following finding on the record:

24 In the case of the United States of America versus
25 Davin Seth Waters, 2:19-CR-93-Z-BR (1), I find that Mr.

1 Waters is fully competent and capable of entering an informed
2 plea. His plea of guilty to Count One of the Indictment is a
3 knowing and voluntary plea that is supported by an
4 independent basis in fact that contains each of the essential
5 elements charged by the offense in Count One of the 6 Indictment.

7 The Court recommends that his plea of guilty be
8 accepted by our District Judge, and if it is, he then will be 9 adjudged guilty of the offense charged by Count One of the 10 Indictment.

11 Mr. Waters, I have a document that's entitled 12 Report and Recommendation Concerning Plea of Guilty. I will
13 sign that this morning. We will file it in your case later
14 today.

15 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, ma'am.

16 THE COURT: That is my way to formally communicate
17 to the District Judge that I am recommending that he accept
18 the plea of guilty you have already entered.

19 Once it is filed, you will have 14 days from today
20 to make any kind of objection that you may want to make 21 through your attorney to the fact that I'm recommending the 22 guilty plea be accepted.

23 As we mentioned earlier, there will be a probation
24 officer who prepares a Presentence Report in your case. That
25 is done to assist the District Judge with his decisions

1 concerning an appropriate sentence.

2 Because I am not the one who will handle the
3 sentencing phase of your case, I can't tell you the exact
4 dates when things will occur after today.

5 What I can tell you though is that normally, within
6 a day or two after a hearing like this, the District Judge
7 will enter his own order that sets out the schedule for the 8 rest of your case. It will have the date of your sentencing
9 hearing in that order. It will give you a lot of other
10 important information.

11 One of the things it will say is that at the 12 hearing the Judge will hear from you, your attorney, and up
13 to three witnesses on your behalf. If you would like to have 14 people write letters to him that talk about your character,
15 you can have that done as well, and as long as your attorney
16 gets those letters to the District Judge before your 17 sentencing hearing, he will read all of those letters.

18 The last thing I want to explain is with respect to 19 the Presentence Report that will be prepared. You very 20 likely will be asked to meet with the probation officer to 21 help get that report prepared, and your attorney can be there
22 with you when you have that meeting. Your cooperation in 23 that whole process is very important. That is because the 24 Presentence Report that is being prepared will serve as the 25 basis to calculate the sentencing guideline range in your

1 case.

2 Also, the probation officer who prepares that
3 report has the ability to recommend a decrease in your
4 offense level for acceptance of responsibility.

5 THE DEFENDANT: I understand.

6 THE COURT: Okay. Do you have any questions about
7 what we've covered this morning, sir?

8 THE DEFENDANT: No, ma'am.

9 THE COURT: Okay. That's everything for your case
10 today. Good luck to you as you finish out everything in this
11 matter, sir.

12 THE DEFENDANT: Thank you, ma'am.

13 MR. ROPER: Thank you, Your Honor.

14 THE COURT: Thank you. We'll be in recess.

15 COURT SECURITY OFFICER: All rise.

16 (End of Rearraignment for 11/25/2019.)
